FROM PASTOR'S DESK

Easter People

Jesus showed the disciples what would happen:

<sup>21</sup> From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

Matthew 16:21

He said it to them:

<sup>22</sup> As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup> and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day." And they were greatly distressed.

Matthew 17:22-23

And again he said it to them:

<sup>18</sup> [Jesus said:] "See, we are going up to Jerusalem. And the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death <sup>19</sup> and deliver him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified, and he will be raised on the third day."

Matthew 20:18-19

And again:

<sup>21</sup> [Jesus] strictly charged and commanded [His disciples] to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup> saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

Luke 9:21-22

The chief priests and the Pharisees knew about it:

<sup>63</sup> [The chief priests and the Pharisees] said [to Pilate], "Sir, we remember how that impostor said, while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise.' <sup>64</sup> Therefore order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples go and steal him away and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last fraud will be worse than the first."

Matthew 27:63-64

Jesus clearly explained what was coming:

<sup>31</sup> And taking the twelve, [Jesus] said to them, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup> For he will be delivered over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and shamefully treated and spit upon. <sup>33</sup> And after flogging him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise."

Luke 18:31-33

The men (angels!) at the tomb reminded the women at the tomb that Easter morning of what Jesus had said:

<sup>6</sup> [The men at the tomb said:] “He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.”

Luke 24:6-7

And then, even after He had risen, Jesus said it again to the disciples on the road to Emmaus:

<sup>45</sup> Then [Jesus] opened [the disciples’] minds to understand the Scriptures, <sup>46</sup> and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, <sup>47</sup> and that repentance for the forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Luke 24:45-47

And if that weren’t enough, Peter was led to explain it to the everyone in Cornelius’ house:

<sup>39</sup> [Peter said to those in Cornelius’ house:] We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, <sup>40</sup> but God raised him on the third day and made him to appear, <sup>41</sup> not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Acts 10:39-41

Paul, too, reminded the Corinthians of what Jesus had said:

<sup>3</sup> [Paul wrote to the Corinthians:] I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup> that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

1 Corinthians 15:3-4

Today, I remind you again of what we have just confessed in our Holy Week and Easter worship services: Jesus was crucified. Jesus died. Jesus has risen! And in Him we have forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation.

We are “Easter people.” Every Sunday we gather in worship to be reminded of this basic truth: our salvation is found in Jesus Christ, who was given into death so that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. We reflect this truth into the world. We live as “Easter people.”

As you go out into the world and interact with folks, my prayer is that they would see Jesus’ light reflecting in you and through you; that they would wonder about the hope that is in you, and maybe even ask about it so that you can introduce them to the One who died and rose again for them! What a blessing to live under our gracious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed! ALLELUIA!

In HIS Service,
Pr. Longman

ENDOWMENT FUND

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church has an Endowment Fund which receives gifts and bequests that are invested in long-term high-quality stocks, bonds, and CD's. Interest, dividends, and unrealized long-term gains from these investments may be used to support Christian Education, Outreach Programs, Scholarships (seminarians), capital Building and Ground improvements, Youth programs, Church Music, Technology and Building Fund(s). The income from these investments can also be used, with Voter approval, to support ministry projects such as Grants for world mission projects, Mid-South District projects, Disaster Relief projects and grants to LMCS colleges and affiliated ministries' principle or the original gifts are not used to support the aforementioned activities but only the capital gains and interest, the principle remains to continue producing additional monies to support Holy Trinity Lutheran Church growth and teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

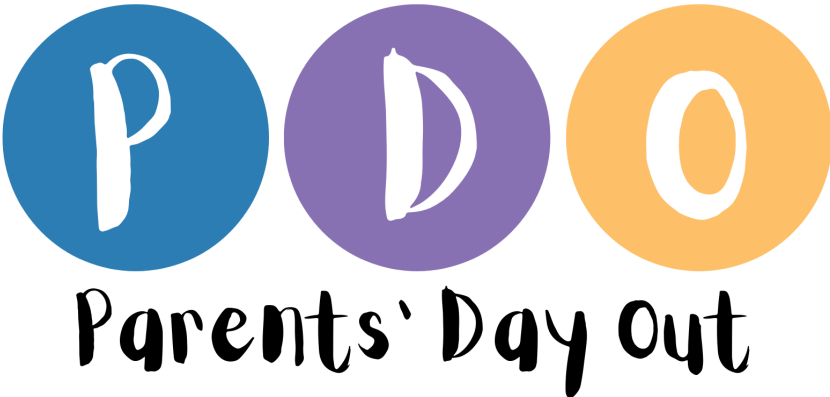

On behalf of the Parents' Day Out Advisory Board, Teachers and Students, I want to say a big thank you to you all for your generosity during PDO Celebration Month! You gave us about $500 in cash through the flowers fundraiser and what we estimate to be $1000 worth of items. I personally am so grateful to all of you for giving us what we need for this ministry to flourish.

The Caterpillars, Butterflies and Fireflies had a fun and love-filled February! They celebrated kindness and generosity on February 13th exchanging Valentines and enjoying strawberries and whipped cream as a Valentine's Day treat.

Ms. Emma Coulter has been teaching music classes on Tuesday and the children love it! They are singing, dancing and wiggling with scarves, egg shakers and a parachute. We are looking forward to a performance celebrating the risen Jesus and stewardship of the earth, on April 4th!

This summer we will have a summer camp for children in grades K-4. Each week we will have a different theme for stories, art and activities. We are able to be flexible with this summer camp, so families can choose which weeks they would like to sign up for at the beginning of each month.

Parents' Day Out

A Robe That Won't Weigh You Down

Back in the day, high school letterman jackets were a bigger deal. Almost everyone got one if they could. You knew where people went to high school by their jackets. You knew the colors and the letters.

Some sports received more than letters. Some got medals, too. Good wrestlers especially jingled as they walked, their accomplishments heralding their arrival. Every day was leg day with such a jacket. I had a few medals, but no one heard me coming. My legs didn't work too hard.

Imagine if sinners got a letterman jacket. Imagine if we got medals for every sin. Imagine how we'd jingle with shame. Imagine how weighed down we'd be. How would we stand, let alone walk? We would be recognized everywhere we went. Everyone would know who we were, what we were. There would be no hiding. There would be no running away. There would be no standing tall. Our jackets would weigh too much.

Those who know me know I'm very picky about hymns. I can't read music, but I don't let that get in my way. I'm hard to please. I think one of the hymns people would be surprised I like is "What Wondrous Love Is This." It has two obvious knocks against it: it's repetitive, and it might tempt you to sway. I let that slide in this instance, however. I look forward to singing it in Lent. The second verse comes to mind:

"When I was sinking down, sinking down, sinking down, when I was sinking down, sinking down, when I was sinking down beneath God's righteous frown, Christ laid aside his crown for my soul, Christ laid aside his crown for my soul" (Christian Worship 526).

Sin is a heavy thing to bear. Its jacket is shame, its medals are guilt. Shame might not hit us as it used to, so that the prophet could say of us, too, that we've forgotten how to blush (Jer. 6:15). But I think it's making a comeback, even if we blush at the wrong things. No one wants to be cringe or canceled. We might call shame embarrassment, but we still know what it is.

I don't think guilt is going anywhere, either. Whole industries are built around it. The question is whether we feel it about the right things, things that are greater than plastic straws or political allegiances. Guilt is a powerful thing, and misplaced guilt is a dangerous thing.

Sin is a heavy thing to bear because it does so much harm, even the seemingly hidden sins or those that don't seem to hurt anyone. Sin offends God, wrongs my neighbor, and attacks my human dignity. Every sin is a sin against God, and every sin is a sin against myself. I was created for more than sin. And yet, here I am, with my heavy letterman jacket and all my medals, sinking down, Christ came to save sinners. He came to save them while they were still weak. He came to save the ungodly. He came to save them while they were still his enemies. Are you a sinner? Excellent! Christ came for you. Are you ungodly? I've good news for you! Christ came to reconcile you to God.

This isn't an easy thing to believe, which is why the gift of faith is required. Our jacket is heavy. Our medals preach. It's hard to bear up, to stand. Christ, however, got cold, so to speak. He needed a jacket. He needed that jacket because he loves sinners but can't leave them that way. He's taken your jacket and given you a robe with a yoke that's easy and light.

The sick need a doctor, not the healthy. The Great Physician came for you. The righteous may not need forgiveness, but sinners do. Christ came to take your sins away. The godly don't need a God, but the ungodly do. Christ came to be your God. Scarcely will one die for a righteous person. Even more scarcely will one die for a sinner. But Christ did just that for you.

Your sins are more than you can bear. Stop trying to carry them. There's no need to blush anymore, no need to try to jingle away. Stand in grace through faith. Stand in grace from Christ through faith in Christ. Stand fast, knowing that your legs have pierced feet to buoy them. You are a sumo wrestler in Christ.

Are you sick of that jacket? I know I am. What sense would it make to try to get it back now that Christ has taken it away? Wear your robe with joy, woven as if part of your skin, so light you might develop a spring in your step even in suffering.

What's left after that? I'll tell you what the hymn says:

"To God and to the Lamb, I will sing, I will sing; to God and to the Lamb I will sing; to God and to the Lamb, who is the great I AM, while millions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing, while millions join the theme, I will sing."sinking down, beneath God's righteous frown.

KIDS IN THE DIVINE SERVICE

Why is Confession so important to a Christian?

Confessing our sins is important! When we confess them, we see just how terribly sinful we are.

We also know that sin brings nothing but eternal death and separation from God. When we confess our sins, not only do we see that we are sinful, but we admit to God that we deserve death and separation from Him forever. We are free to admit all of this to Him because we know that Jesus has already died and paid for all of our sins.

After we have confessed our sins, is there any hope?

After Confession comes Absolution, or, the forgiveness of sins! In Jesus we have the sure and true promise of forgiveness of sins. "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9). Wow! Absolution is absolutely wonderful!

Parents: Before the service, read through the confession and explain the words that might be confusing. During the service, help direct your children to the Confession/Absolution as it happens. Remind them that when the Pastor is speaking, it is as if God himself is speaking these words of comfort to us.
